

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

by Stanley Orris

Not content with stealing our thunder by getting quoted on the radio, our correspondent from over the hills, by the name Ruggles has decided this paper needs a little class and so sent in the poem below. We have a sneaking suspicion he is taunting us and trying to get us to write a poem too, but we aren't having any. Our sins are many but poetry is not one of them. So we bow graciously to our superior. You win round two Archie.

WILL IT HAILE

By Archie Ruggles

The farmer casts his gaze above
To scan an angry sky,
And, he thinks how he would love
To see the storm pass by.
At last, the storm has gone,
The farmer smiles again.
Mental worries, too, have flown
For it was only rain.

And when the sun comes out,
He starts to hurry again,
Now there is no doubt
There'll be too much grain.
Storage, is the problem now,
And harvest help is nil.
So, he puts into the mow
Wheat, intended for the mill.

BLACKFORD-SISSON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt B. Blackford, Lethbridge, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday, August 20, when Mary Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milford J. Sisson of Champion, became the bride of Bryan Forrest, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Blackford. Rev. Father John Duplant was the officiating clergyman.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Davis, the bride entered the room, with her father wearing a heaven blue and gold ensemble, with matching accessories and corsage of red roses. She carried a prayer book covered with mother of pearl. Her attendant, Miss Margaret Blackford, wore a dove grey crepe dress, with corsage of yellow roses. The ceremony took place in front of the fireplace arranged with tall tapers, smilax and garden flowers. Mr. Kaye Bullock acted as best man. During the signing of the register "I Love You Truly" was played softly.

A reception to about 35 guests followed immediately after the ceremony. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Sisson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Blackford, the groom's mother, the former wearing a golden tone ensemble, and the latter a primrose yellow sheer dress. Refreshments were served from a daintily appointed table decorated with cream tapers and bouquets of sweet peas. A three-tier wedding cake surrounded by smilax and white tulle centered the table. Those assisting in serving were Miss Lois Blackford, Miss Vendella Johnson and Miss Patricia Graham. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Duplant, the groom responding.

After the reception the happy couple left by motor for Waterton Park, and on their return will reside in Lethbridge.

Why Men Fish

The Minneapolis Star Journal Fishing is mostly an excuse. An excuse to get beyond reach of a telephone, to dress in old and comfortable clothing, to feel the warm good stress of Summer's sun and a mellow breeze across the water. Sitting in a gently rocking boat, lazily watching a bobber, man attains to a pleasant nirvana into which the cares of business cannot penetrate.

Or directly trailing a favorite fly along the stream, he feels the current against his legs and his whole being thrills to the tempo of nature's pulse. Cut off from his everyday world, his ear attunes itself to the calls of birds, to the slight notes of wild things along the bank, to the gray lilt of the moving brook.

Or casting his lure at evening toward some deep shore of a pine-guarded northern lake, where all the portents are for bass, a surpassing tranquility envelops him. The sky turns pale opal blue. The water looks oily in its calmness as it gradually darkens to the color of mystery. Into the cavernous quiet of twilight intrude only the cry of a loon, the splash of a fish.

But in spite of the serenity, a feeling of impending drama is in the air. Can such quiet and beauty remain unbroken. Across the lake something moves. Through the trees and down onto the sand a dainty deer steps regally. Calmly it looks to right and left. It drinks, then raises its head, ears vigilant, and stands as still as if blown of fragile glass. Unhurriedly it turns, and of a sudden is gone.

His crest may be empty, but the fisherman has not gone unwarded.

Alberta Pacific Reduces Both Street and Carlot Spread

The Alberta Pacific Grain Company has reduced by one and one-half [1-2] cents a bushel the spread in the handling of "street" wheat and has also reduced by one [1c] cent a bushel the spread in the handling of "carlot" wheat delivered to the Wheat Board through Alberta Pacific elevators for the 1942 crop year.

This means not only that the "street" spread in Board wheat handled by Alberta Pacific elevators will be eliminated and that farmers who deliver on that basis will receive the carlot price but also that farmers delivering "street" wheat will benefit by one and one-half [1-2c] cents a bushel and farmers delivering "carlot" wheat will benefit by one [1c] cent a bushel as compared with last year's charges. The Wheat Board has been advised accordingly.

The well-known reputation of the A. P. for thirty years is that it has never trailed behind anyone in price and grade given for the farmers' grain.

Do your grain business with an A. P. agent.

HOW TO GO ON A SPENDING SPREE!

We have been told that it is our patriotic duty and a national necessity that we purchase all the War Savings Certificates and Victory Bonds we possibly can afford. It has been held up to us that after the war there will be a depression of sorts and the person who has a reserve of capital in the form of these securities will be better able to adjust themselves to the changing economic system.

We are aware that to some people the talk of a depression does not mean very much and it is of no use to hold up to them the necessity of saving for such an event. They are the incurable optimists who live from day to day and care not for the morrow. Their greatest pleasure is in spending their money. To them we make another suggestion. For the remainder of this war and for some time afterwards they are going to find it almost impossible to spend their money on the usual consumer goods, but at the same time the consumer goods they now have are going to be continually wearing out and deteriorating. When the war is over they are going to have to replace these goods. To do so they are going to require a great deal of capital. What better way is there for them to go on a post war buying spree than to save the money now by investing it in the War Savings Certificates and Victory Bonds.

AN OLD CANADIAN CUSTOM . . .

When our pioneer grandparents had a big job to do they called in their neighbours. A barn raising brought help from miles around. Skilled barn framers took charge; sides were chosen and competition between teams lent interest to the work. This old Canadian custom was revived when Canada's National War Finance Committee was formed and went into operation. Under the leadership of the National and Provincial Committees—men experienced in the organization and conduct of financial operations—Local Committees were formed in all communities. Co-operation and competition characterized the work. The biggest "raising" in Canada's history got away to a magnificent start.

WE'VE GOT A BIG JOB TO DO NOW

The War goes on. The National War Finance Committee carries on. Some will serve on the committees organized to promote continued sales of Bonds, War Savings Certificates and Stamps. All of us must continue to buy these securities. We must save every dollar, every cent we can—and lend our money to Canada. We must provide the money required to carry on the war—the money required to win the war.

Our fighters must have more ships and tanks and guns and planes. They must have better ships and tanks and guns and planes than the enemy has. We must all work, and save and lend. The safest investments we can find for our savings are Bonds, War Savings Certificates and Stamps—and they will provide money for us to buy things that we will want when the war is ended.

The Chronicle Tobacco Fund

This fund is for the purpose of sending cigarettes regularly to the boys of the district serving overseas in Canada's forces.

It is planned to send 300 cigarettes each month to each boy.

Money will be collected by voluntary donations made direct to the Chronicle which will be acknowledged in the paper, and through receptacles to be placed in all places of business.

Every cent of money collected will go directly for purchase of cigarettes as the Chronicle is assuming all expenses in connection with the fund.

The local I.O.D.E. chapter has kindly consented to administer the fund, that is, they will handle all monies, book-keeping and ordering.

Donations, distribution and expenditures will be published regularly in the columns of this paper.

No donation is too small to help in this work. Won't you plan to help see that our boys get enough smokes?

Wool Resources Are Increased As Old Sweaters Become New

With wool for sweaters getting more and more precious, women of Canada are going to do a lot of unravelling and re-knitting this year.

This is how to unravel an old garment. Remove buttons, or fasteners, and unpick any double crochet round the edges. If the collar was knitted on picked-up stitches, unravel this next, starting at the end where you finished knitting.

As you unwind, roll the wool into balls. There may be some short lengths and it is wise to keep these all in one ball. When the wool is all in balls wind into one or two ounce skeins around a tray with one hand under the wool so it isn't drawn tight. Before taking it off the tray, tie in two places with a loose loop, leaving ends for tying to the clothes line.

Wash each skein absolutely clean in tepid water and pure soap flakes. Rinse several times in water. of the same temperature. Squeeze dry and tie to the clothes line or dry flat on clean towels, turning from time to time. In either case, slip along the loops when the rest of the wool is dry, and leave long enough for the wet patches to dry.

USE LEATHER SCRAPS

Use leather scraps from gloves, bags or discarded leather jackets to sew over points of wear in children's and men's clothing or to line jackets for extra warmth.

A small strip of leather will make an excellent button loop on a garment where the loop gets hard wear.

Nine automobile tires use the equivalent of the rubber needed for one tire on a four-engine bomber.

NATIONAL WAR LABOUR BOARD
GENERAL ORDER

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has found that the cost of living index number for July 2, 1942, of 117.9 (adjusted index 117) has risen by 2.4 points over the index for October 1, 1941, of 115.5 (adjusted index 114.6).

Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of Section 34 (1) of the Wartime Wages Control Order P.C. 5963, and subject to the general provisions of the Order, the National War Labour Board orders that employers subject to the Order who are paying a cost of living bonus shall adjust the amount of such bonus payment, and employers who are not paying a cost of living bonus shall commence the payment of such a bonus, both effective from the first payroll period beginning on or after August 15, 1942, as follows:

(a) If payment of a cost of living bonus is being made pursuant to the provisions of Order in Council P.C. 8253 (now superseded by P.C. 5963):

(i) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (a) of P.C. 5963 applies, the bonus shall be increased by the amount of sixty (60c) cents per week;

(ii) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (b) of P.C. 5963 applies, the percentage of their weekly wage rates, paid to them as a cost of living bonus, shall be increased by 2.4 points;

(b) If no cost of living bonus is being paid, the payment of such a bonus shall be commenced:

(i) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (a) of P.C. 5963 applies, in the amount of sixty (60c) cents per week;

(ii) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (b) of P.C. 5963 applies, in the amount of 2.4% of their weekly wage rates;

(c) In no case shall the amount of a cost of living bonus adjusted as stated exceed a maximum of $4.25 per week to employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (a) of P.C. 5963 applies, and of 17% of their weekly wage rates to employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (b) of P.C. 5963 applies:

(d) (i) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (a) of P.C. 5963 applies now being paid a cost of living bonus, not pursuant to the provisions of P.C. 8253, established prior to the effective date of that Order, in an amount exceeding $4.25 per week, the amount of the bonus shall remain unchanged;

(ii) For such employees now being paid a cost of living bonus of less than $4.25 per week, the amount of the bonus shall be increased up to sixty (60c) cents per week, but in no case to exceed a total weekly bonus of $4.25;

(2) (i) For employees to whom Section 48 (iii) (b) of P.C. 5963 applies, now being paid a cost of living bonus, not pursuant to the provisions of P.C. 8253, established prior to the effective date of that Order, in an amount exceeding 17% of their weekly wage rates, the amount of the bonus shall remain unchanged;

(ii) For such employees now being paid a cost of living bonus of less than 17% of their weekly wage rates, the bonus shall be increased up to 2.4 points, but in no case to exceed a total weekly bonus of 17% of their weekly wage rates;

(e) The adjustment or payment of a cost of living bonus calculated as ordered shall be to the nearest cent of any fractional figure;

(f) Employers in the construction industry shall adjust the amount of any cost of living bonus required by paragraph (a) of this order only for employees in respect of whom no special bonus arrangement has been made with the approval of a War Labour Board, pursuant to the provision of the Order for the conduct of the National Joint Conference Board of the Construction Industry.

WELL DONE KIDS!

The school children of the Champion Consolidated Schools may well be proud of their achievement in the matter of their recent salvage campaign for old rubber. When the rubber was sold and despatched to the reclaiming factories it was found that the children had collected 17,320 pounds with a value obtained of $68.00. It every community in Canada would do as well per capita it would certainly be a magnificent contribution to the war effort.

BETWEEN US

Now Stan, there is a little matter between ourselves that should be mullied over, so I head this, "Between Us," as I don't think it will be read by anyone else, any way.

In last week's issue you devoted your entire column, known as "Between You and Me" to poking fun at me and R. D. Colquette, now I appreciate being classified with Mr. Colquette, but he might think differently, and I dare say that he would object to the word "garrulous" as a suitable one to use in describing a fellow journalist.

Regarding the dead joke, I still claim it was dead or partly so, for you yourself said the man in question was dead and was suffering tortures of heat, and who would be better qualified to say that than a printer and his devil, or don't printers have devils any more?

As for a yarn spinning contest with R. D., with you on the side lines that would be fine, providing you were minus pencil and pad as the things you can conjure up out of nothing might remind me of Paul Bunyan and it has always made me sick every time I think of the time he and I put in our bids to furnish Jim Hill the ties to build the Great Northern R.R. Paul got the contract and I got the laugh, and if I am not mistaken I am going to get it again.

You boys in the army who receive the Chronicle will no doubt wonder what this is all about, it is merely that Stan, and I have opened a second front, he opened with a broadside that caught me amidside, right now I am giving him all I can though retreating, hope in our next engagement to use my forward guns, they are larger caliber and results may be in my favor.
